Comments by Erkki Järvinen, President and CEO:

"The revenue and operating result of the year's last quarter were close to the level of the comparison period. Sales volumes developed well in Western markets, but the unfavorable development in exchange rates and higher cost level negatively impacted revenue and profitability.

Euro-denominated revenue for the entire year decreased by 2 percent, but grew in local currencies. The exchange rate development and divestments exerted a negative impact on revenue, totaling approximately EUR 28 million. Sales volumes grew in all key markets with the exception of Russia, where the decline in volume nevertheless clearly leveled out. China's strong growth in business operations continued, and the sales network was again raised by over 100 sales outlets.

Relative profitability for the entire year deteriorated from 10.1 percent to 9.4 percent. This deterioration arose primarily as a result of our investments towards stimulating demand in the Western paint market and improving the customer experience, as well as in strengthening sales and marketing resources under harsh competitive circumstances.

The most difficult phase in Russia would appear to be over. We await a slightly easier situation for the current year, but we do not see signs of rapid improvement. Increase in local production and raw materials sourcing have proceeded as planned. The changes made have favorably impacted demand and profitability, and as a result we have been able to maintain our clear leadership in the market.

Our goal is to grow our business further in the coming years. Growth is being actively sought in various geographical areas and product groups. In addition, better service on the professional side is high on our priority list. In order to support our growth target, we have on the one hand adjusted the structure of the company and streamlined our operational modes in recent years and, on the other hand, increased resources supporting growth. We will continue to make our operations more efficient also during the current year.

The price and availability related uncertainties linked with raw materials and titanium dioxide in particular, have increased significantly during the past few days. We will do our utmost to mitigate this significant risk by activating our sourcing and product development.

We estimate positive volume development as well as revenue and adjusted operating profit to grow this year."

Tikkurila Oyj Financial Statement Release for January 1–December 31, 2016

This Financial Statement Release has been prepared in accordance with the IAS 34 standard and other valid regulations. The information disclosed is unaudited with the exception of full year figures for 2015 and 2016. The figures presented in the Financial Statement Release are independently rounded.

Fluctuations in exchange rates in this Financial Statement Release refer to the translation effect of the exchange rates.

In this report, all forward-looking statements in relation to the company or its business are based on the management judgment, and macroeconomic or general industry data are based on third-party sources.

If there are any discrepancies between the language versions of the Financial Statement Release, the Finnish version shall prevail.

As of January 1, 2014, Tikkurila's business operations are organized in two reporting segments, or Strategic Business Units (SBU). Tikkurila's reporting segments are SBU West and SBU East. SBU West consists of Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Finland, Poland, Germany, Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania. SBU East consists of Russia, Central Asian countries, Serbia, Macedonia, and China. Furthermore, SBU East is responsible for the exports to more than 20 countries.

Market Review

With regard to the key economies of our operational area, the gross domestic products of Sweden and Poland are expected to have grown almost 3 percent in 2016. Finland's economic growth is anticipated to have remained under one percent. Russia's GDP is expected to have declined approximately one percent.

Sweden's economic growth was comprehensive in scope in 2016. However, growth in private consumption was rather modest given the circumstances. With regard to the continuation of strong economic growth, the increase in saving reflected an uncertain approach on the part of households. Sweden's paint market is anticipated to have slightly increased in 2016. According to Tikkurila's estimate, no significant changes occurred in the market share for decorative paints (market share in value in 2015: approximately 37 percent).

The constriction of Russia's economy slowed, but the market situation continued to be fairly difficult. Private consumption shrank due to consumers' weakened purchasing power and low confidence. Competition in the paint market remained tight, and active price campaigning continued. Low purchasing power resulted in a growing relative demand for paints of lower quality and price categories.

Finland's economy turned slightly towards growth after several years of decline, but was still lower than the average value of the Eurozone. Consumer confidence strengthened at the end of the year, clearly surpassing the long-term average value, and the construction of growth centers picked up. According to Tikkurila's estimate, no significant changes occurred in the market share for decorative paints (market share in value in 2015: more than 50 percent).

Poland's economic growth continued particularly due to strong private demand, although more slowly than in recent years. Unemployment was at a record low level and consumer confidence continued to strengthen over the course of the year. Many competitors continued their aggressive campaigns targeting distributors. Price competition was fierce in industrial products as well, whose demand was negatively affected by the decrease in public infrastructure-based projects and investments, particularly at the end of the year. Tikkurila's market share in decorative paints was approximately 15 percent in 2016 (market share in volume in 2015: approximately 16 percent).

TIKKURILA OYJ

Among Tikkurila's key currencies, the Russian ruble was clearly weaker in the period under review than the year before. The Polish zloty and the Swedish krona were also at a slightly weaker level. Also the tenge of Kazakhstan and the yuan of China depreciated.

The prices of raw materials were close to the comparison period level, although there were differences in the price development of individual raw materials.

Financial Performance in October–December 2016

SBU West's last quarter revenue remained close to the comparison period's level. Higher sales volumes increased revenue by 7 percent. Changes in the sales mix and sales prices decreased revenue by 6 percent. Preparation for the deployment of the ERP system was in the background of this development, as well as an increase in the relative share sales of fillers and larger cans. Among the key markets, in Sweden revenue decreased to EUR 25.7 (28.2) million, while in Finland revenue increased to EUR 12.8 (12.2) million, and in Poland revenue increased to EUR 13.3 (12.4) million.

Last quarter operating result turned positive due to a good sales structure and stringent cost control.

Financial Performance in 2016

SBU East's full-year revenue decreased by 6 percent from the comparison period. Exchange rate fluctuations reduced revenue by 8 percent mainly due to the weak Russian ruble. Sales price increases, carried out in Russia at the beginning of 2016 to offset the impact of the weakening ruble, and changes in the sales mix increased SBU East's revenue by 8 percent. Lower sales volumes decreased revenue by 2 percent. Sales volumes in China increased strongly from the comparison period. Sales volumes increased clearly also in Kazakhstan. In Russia, the sales volumes decreased slightly from the comparison period. Divestments decreased revenue by 4 percent. Revenue in Russia decreased to EUR 120.2 (128.4) million.

Full-year adjusted operating profit was at the comparison period's level and relative profitability improved slightly. Profitability was improved by the increases in sales prices and changes in sales mix, increased local production and improved productivity in Russia as well as the favorable development of the Chinese business operations.

Cash Flow, Financing Activities, and Financial Risk Management

Tikkurila's financial position and liquidity remained at a good level during the review period.

Cash flow from operations in January–December totaled EUR 42.8 (48.5) million. Cash flow was weakened by lower profitability and changes in net working capital. At the end of the review period, net working capital totaled EUR 89.1 (78.9) million. The growth in net working capital was primarily due to the increase in trade receivables as longer payment times were granted for selected key customers. Also the timing of sales at the end of the year and the changes in exchange rates affected the receivables balance. In addition, finished goods inventories reached a slightly higher level, due to preparations for the deployment of the new enterprise resource planning system in Poland at the turn of the year. The total of non-interest bearing liabilities was on the level of the previous turn of the year. The net cash flow from the investing activities was EUR -20.1 (-15.8) million, when taking into account the acquisitions and divestments. Cash flow after capital expenditure totaled EUR 22.7 (32.6) million at the end of the review period.

TIKKURILA OYJ

Interest-bearing debt amounted to EUR 77.2 (63.0) million at the end of the review period, and net debt was EUR 58.7 (46.2) million. At the end of the review period, cash and cash equivalents amounted to EUR 18.5 (16.8) million, and short-term interest-bearing debt totaled EUR 27.1 (12.8) million, including the company's issued commercial papers for a total nominal amount of EUR 25.0 (10.0) million. Moreover, the Group had long-term interest-bearing debt totaling EUR 50.1 (50.2) million. At the end of December, the Group had a total of EUR 109.4 (111.1) million of unused committed credit facilities or credit limits.

The Group's net financial expense was 3.9 (9.3) million positive, of which interest expenses totaled EUR -0.3 (-0.9) million and other financing expenses EUR -0.6 (-0.5) million. The average capital-weighted interest rate of interest-bearing debt was 0.8 (1.2) percent. The net profit was positively affected by a total of EUR 4.8 (-7.9) million based on the impact of realized and unrealized exchange rate differences recognized during the review period. The main positive impact was related to the Russian ruble denominated items. At the end of 2014, the Board of Directors decided to change the exchange rate risk management so that the company will not carry out forward exchange agreements as of the beginning of the 2015 financial period or apply other financial instruments to hedge risks; instead, exchange rate risk management will, involve operative measures such as the coordination of currency allocation of incoming and outgoing cash flows.

At the end of December, the equity ratio was 50.9 (51.1) percent, and gearing was 28.1 (23.7) percent.

Capital Expenditure

In 2016, the gross capital expenditure excluding acquisitions amounted to EUR 23.3 (20.9) million. Capital expenditures in the period under review were mainly related to the introduction of new IT systems in different locations of the Group. One of the most important on-going ICT investments is the deployment of enterprise resource planning system (ERP), which started in the Group phase by phase during the first half of 2016. On December 31, 2016, the prepayments and non-current assets under construction related to the ERP totaled EUR 14.8 million in the Group consolidated statement of financial position. The new ERP system was taken into use during 2016 in the Baltic countries, Finland, and Norway, and at the beginning of 2017 in Poland. The system will be in use in almost all Group's operating countries during the first half of 2017.

The Group's depreciation, amortization and impairment losses amounted to EUR 16.7 (17.3) million in 2016. The Group performs impairment tests in accordance with the IAS 36 standard.

The Annual General Meeting of Tikkurila Oyj will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday, April 4, 2017 at the Finlandia Hall (address: Mannerheimintie 13, 00100 Helsinki). The report of the Board of Directors and Financial Statements will be available on week 9 at www.tikkurilagroup.com.

Near-term risks and uncertainties

Tikkurila's business operations are affected by various strategic, operational, financial, and accident risks. Tikkurila endeavors to identify and evaluate risks and respond to them as proactively as possible and contain their possible adverse effects. The company anticipates the following to be central risks and uncertainties on the date of publishing this Financial Statement Release:

Macroeconomic situation in Russia and its neighboring regions

The decline of Russia's economy flattened out last year, and the economy is anticipated to even rise slightly during the current year. Russia's economy is highly dependent on the development of oil prices. If the price of oil were to decline from the current price level of over USD 50 per barrel, this would lead to a weaker economy and development in the purchasing power of consumers than predicted during the current year, which on its part would weaken demand for Tikkurila products and shift the demand towards lower price category products.

Credit loss risks

The availability of financing has weakened and interest rates are high in the developing markets, resulting in increased credit loss risks. Even though Tikkurila has not experienced considerable credit losses, counterparty risks will increase in the future and may hinder business operations or cause losses, although Tikkurila has a broad customer base.

Exchange rate development

Due to the international nature of Tikkurila's operations, the Group's income statement, balance sheet, and cash flow are subject to currency risks. The most significant currency risks will target the Russian ruble, Swedish krona and Polish zloty, which are the reporting currencies of Tikkurila's largest subsidiaries. Some of the Group's raw material purchases are directly or indirectly priced in US dollars. The dollar strengthened significantly during last year, and if this development continues, it may increase the Group's raw material costs. Furthermore, the company's equity will be subject to currency risks when the subsidiaries' foreign currency-denominated equity items are converted to euro and the euro-denominated consolidated balance sheet assets' values change with the exchange rates.

TIKKURILA OYJ

Risks related to raw materials

Tikkurila is dependent on the ability of its suppliers to deliver the raw materials needed for the production of paints. Pressures for price increase were noted during the latter half of 2016 in certain raw materials important for Tikkurila. Tikkurila believes that the prices for raw materials will continue to rise. It is possible that the Group is unable to transfer the rise in costs to its end product prices completely or without delays. There are significant availability and price development related uncertainties linked with titanium dioxide in 2017. Uncertainties linked with raw materials may have an impact on market share development, general competition situation or product range.

Risks related to the industry and operative activities

In the paint industry, competition has become increasingly fierce and the importance of price is highlighted amidst financial difficulties. For example, some companies in the construction industry or related fields have expanded their product range to paints as well in order to supplement their total range of services offered to professional customers, whose importance is increasing. In the future, this may impact the structure of Tikkurila's product portfolio and customer base, which in turn will affect profitability, for example.

The overall digitalization of society has accelerated, which may impact Tikkurila's logistics and product distribution channels in the future. It will also increase the opportunities available for end users of paint products to seek and select paint companies across geographical borders. Increased fluctuation in customer demand and better utilization of real-time information may also create needs to make structural changes in production technology and equipment in the future. Understanding customer needs will increase in importance in the future. Strong fluctuations in the business operations and a rapid technological change will pose additional challenges to the availability of skilled personnel and competence development. Securing and diversifying competence is essential for ensuring growth.

Tikkurila's risk management principles can be viewed on Tikkurila's website at www.tikkurilagroup.com. Additional information on the short- and long-term risks of Tikkurila's business operations will be published in the Corporate Governance Statement. More information on financial risks is provided in the Notes to the 2016 Consolidated Financial Statements.

Outlook for 2017

Among Tikkurila's key markets in Sweden and Poland, the fairly strong economic growth is expected to continue in 2017. The economies of Finland and Russia are also anticipated to grow slightly. Demand for paint is predicted to moderately increase in Tikkurila's operational area during the current year. The importance of the professional segment is growing, which affects the sales structure of the Tikkurila Group.

Raw material prices are expected to rise, but Tikkurila will aim to compensate for this impact by intensifying its raw material procurement, increasing local purchasing in Russia, and by increasing its sales prices. Furthermore, there are risks related to the availability of titanium dioxide.

Guidance for 2017

Tikkurila expects its revenue and adjusted operating profit for the financial year 2017 to increase from the 2016 level.

REPORTABLE SEGMENTS

Tikkurila reports its business activities in two segments: SBU West and SBU East. Transactions related to the Group headquarters operations are presented in separate section called Tikkurila common.

The segment split is based on Tikkurila Group's strategy to be the leading provider of paint-related architectural solutions for consumers and professionals in the Nordic area as well as in Russia and other selected Eastern European countries. The segment definition is based on the differences in operating environments in the geographical areas, on valid legislation and regulations, and the management systems.

The evaluation of profitability and decision making concerning resource allocation are primarily based on operating profit of each segment. Segment assets are items on the statement of financial position that the segment employs in its business activities or which can reasonably be allocated to the segments.

Segments' revenue arises from the sales of various paints and related products that are sold to retailers, industrial customers and for professional use. Insignificant revenue is received from the sales of auxiliary services related to paints. Segments' revenue is presented based on the location of the customers, whereas reportable segment assets are presented according to the location of the assets. Inter-segment pricing is based on market prices. External revenue accumulates from a large number of customers.

Available-for-sale financial assets in level 3 include unquoted shares that are measured at amortized cost or the cost less impairment. These shares are of business supportive nature and personnel's recreational activities related long-term investments that Tikkurila is not intending to sell. These shares have no quoted market price in an active market and their fair values cannot be measured reliably by using any valuation techniques. Therefore, according assessment of Tikkurila's management, the cost of shares is the best available estimate for fair value.

In year 2016, gain of EUR 45 thousand is recognized on available-for-sale financial assets in fair value hierarchy level 3 as well as loss on sale of EUR 44 thousand. In year 2015, total gain of EUR one thousand was recognized. Gains on sales of these assets are included in other operating income and loss is recognized in other operating expenses.

1) When calculating the dilution effect for the number of shares, it has been assumed that all the remuneration to be paid in shares would be issued as new shares, even though it is also possible that those shares might be acquired from the markets. Moreover, the number of shares adjusted for dilutive effect is based on estimates for Tikkurila Group's future financial performance, and its impact on the outcome of the share-based commitment and incentive plan.
